Risk: The lender accepts the risk of damage to all lent art objects due to public display, wear and tear, gradual deterioration, inherent vice, pollutants, natural or man-made disaster, and confiscation by public authority due to suspected crime. The Rod Library recommends the lender carry fine art insurance and records of value for all pieces loaned to the library. Rod Library will not undertake appraisal.

Small Print: Objects left at the Rod Library will be given the care provided to similar property of its own. Evidence of damage to objects, at the time of receipt or while in the library's custody, will be reported immediately to the lender. No alterations, restoration or repair to objects will be undertaken without the written authorization of the lender. The lender certifies that the objects loaned are in good condition and will withstand ordinary strains of packing, transportation, handling, and exhibiting. Objects will be returned, packed in the same or similar materials as received, unless otherwise authorized by the lender. Unless otherwise notified in writing, Rod Library assumes the right to photograph and reproduce photographs of the loan for educational and publicity purposes and for use in online and printed materials. Upon expiration of the loan, the object(s) will be released to the lender, according to specific instructions. If, after reasonable efforts, the library is unable to contact the lender, the object will be placed in storage.

I hereby acknowledge that I agree to all of the above information.
